This week: Did You Know?

Ryan Pope is Fairhope's "Lamp Guy." Ryan grew up two places at once: 1) At the Yard Arm, the long-time Fairhope restaurant on the pier, and 2) on a horse farm in Point Clear. According to Ryan, he's been riding horses since the day he was born. "They were like dogs in the backyard, I grew up with them." "At 21, I took off and lived in Virginia, Ohio, Texas, Arizona, Florida and Louisiana." For almost 15 years, he traveled, showing and training Quarter Horses and Arabians. Now, Fairhope finds Ryan at Char 32, where he has been a server/bartender for four years, and at La La Land Modern Vintage where he is constantly rearranging furniture and designing displays in a way that rivals any movie set. "I can't draw a straight line artistically, but design comes naturally, I have an eye for detail. Lighting is the key to any design." Ryan said for many years he "piddled," and figured out how to rewire lamps for himself. After moving back to Fairhope, he worked for an antique mall downtown. One day, a woman bought an old lamp and asked him if he knew anyone who could rewire it. Ryan said, "I can do that," and it took off from there! Now, look for Ryan driving his white SUV with the license plate "Lamp Guy." He doesn't rewire houses, he's not an electrician, but Ryan is known for fixing, creating, and "being able to make anything light up." Fun fact: "9 times out of 10, if someone brings me a lamp with a bulb still in it, it's the lightbulb that needs changing. 90%. Almost every time. It's the weirdest thing. But true." Call Ryan Pope for all your bright and dimwitted lamp needs: Local area code 421-8526. P.S. He has also ridden a unicycle since the age of 6... Talented Fairhope Lamp Guy, indeed. :)" "Let's Go!"
