This week: "Did you know?"

After an incident last week involving burglary, theft, and vandalism at Two Sisters Bakery & Deli in Fairhope, owner John Lozano is feeling grateful and optimistic thanks to our community. He said residents have been coming out to support the business by placing breakfast & lunch orders, and donating to recovery efforts.

"Two Sisters" namesake refers to John's wife, Elizabeth, and her sister, Deborah. Originally from OK and MI, the family opened their eatery in June 2011. John first discovered Fairhope after being transferred to Birmingham through his job with Hobby Lobby. He fell in love with the town, and made the leap to change careers.

Deborah moved back to MI, but their nephew joined the team, and they have a business partner at "2 Sisters Panini" in Daphne. Waffles, beignets, and daily lunch specials are a hit, but John said the BBQ, Cuban, and Cheeseburger + fries are always best-sellers. They also do catering. The Fairhope community has rallied in support; John is thankful and looking into a new security system called "Blink."
