This week: "Did you know?"

Captain Brian Liddy hasn't acted since high school! Yet, as one of five dynamic main characters performing in "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change," Theatre 98's first musical since the pandemic began, even the toughest critics would find it hard to guess Brian himself took an intermission from theater since the early 1990's.

Born in the United States, living in Iran until the age of 2, "home" for Brian is a small town in West Tennessee. After living in Atlanta for the majority of his professional career in technology, and traveling often to the Gulf Coast, he took the leap and moved here full-time six years ago. After a hurricane interrupted his sleeping quarters and dream-job as a charter boat captain in Pensacola, Fairhope became his permanent home.

An American Sailing Instructor, and United States Coast Guard licensed, Captain Brian Liddy now operates Fairhope Sailing Charters with "S/V Serendipity," his Hunter Legend 35'. He also offers contract services with other charter operations.

Having worked hard to overcome health issues, Brian is inspired by philosophy, yoga, and positive spiritual exploration. He encourages everyone to embrace new ideas, find and follow what inspires you, and live life to the fullest. Getting back into theater was a dream come true, and Captain Liddy hopes everyone will come out and see the show.

Other than performing for the next few weeks, Brian is available for water excursions and lessons. Contact: Captain Brian Liddy - 678-628-3179 / bkLiddy@gmail.com
